Spring

Principal's Message

We had such a great month in April. A special thanks to all the parents who volunteered their time for the hot lunch day and the science fair! We had many fun events begin this month including; Bricks 4 Kids, Toof, and even some forensic investigations.

General Reminders

Clothing: Even though we are in spring, the weather doesn't't quite agree so please check the forecast in the morning and provide your children with proper clothing.

Dojo: Please try to check our classroom dojo at least once per week. We post all our school events with links, photos, videos and more.
