Principal's Message

Thank you to all the families who donated to our Calgary Food Bank and congratulations to Mrs. Hil's class for collecting the most items! I hope you enjoyed the movie popcorn! This month we are raising funds for heart health through Jump Rope for Heart!

General Reminders

Volunteering: Don't forget to message Ms. Rupal about a discount to apply for a new police clearance form. If you plan to volunteer at all this year, don't hesitate to apply as the clearance can take time.

Cancellations are due in writing by January 31st.

December Events

Students in grade 1 did fun experiments while learning about the 5 senses.

We are continuing to recognize hard-working students who always use a Growth Mindset!

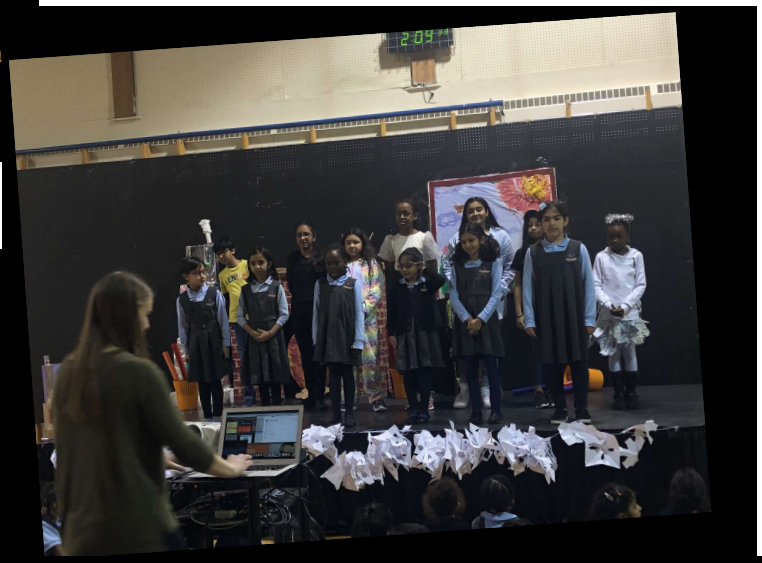

rs. Shakeela invited a volunteer
o teach us about origami art.
he entire school participated in fun event.

December Events

Mrs. Paynter created and ran our annual winter concert. This event was open to all parents and families. We had music, dance, instruments and even a dramatic musical performance.

On our final day of school before the holiday, we had a PJ day to celebrate.

Asasa [illegible] items for donation to the Calgary Food Bank.

Parent Council

Meeting: We still require a few more volunteers to help out every other month. It is a small commitment and you will be spending valuable time helping to continue to improve our school. Please email me to inquire. Our first meeting will be this January 14th at 3pm.
