Happy Holidays

Principal's Message

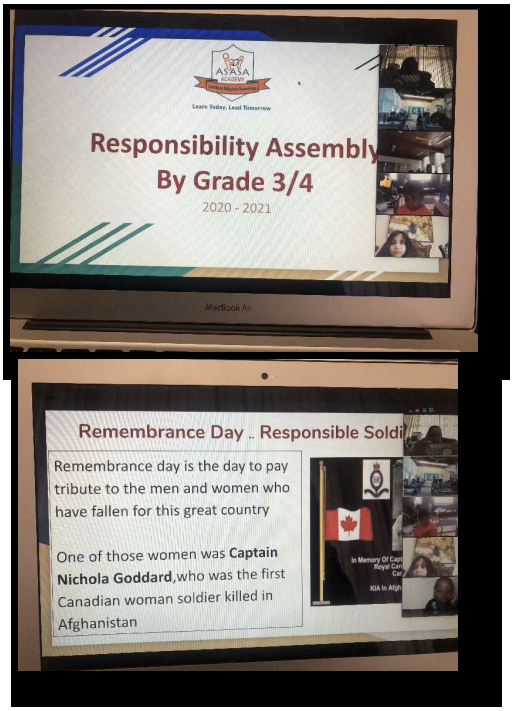

It is the time of year for kindness and cheer! This year has been very challenging for all families and staff. We are excited for 2021 to begin a new! Wishing you all a happy and safe holiday! Merry Christmas!

General Reminders

Scenario 3: Our winter break commences today. Classes will resume Online Only from January 5-8th.

November Events

Happy Remembrance Day! This month we learned about Canadian veterans and responsibility have access to technology to improve their skills in class.

One of our grade 4 students created her own Vietnamese Recess club for the students! Great work!

We worked online to collect donations to support the Calgary Food Bank. We raised $255! Thank you everyone!

November Events

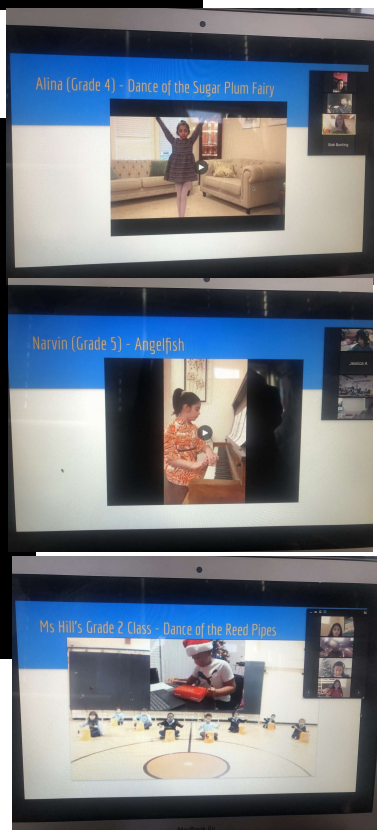

Ms. Pope hosted a greeting card contest. Students of all ages submitted their home made greeting cards for prizes! Great work to all the students and our 1st place winner Ayriana!

We celebrated the holidays with PJ day! All students wore comfy clothes and spread cheer!

Mrs. Paynter hosted a virtual winter concert! Everyone did so well!

Parent Council

Meeting: I would like to meet with the members of PAC in January to discuss our 3 year plan and AERR. We still require a few more volunteers to help out every other month. It is a small commitment and you will be spending valuable time helping to continue to improve our school. Please email me to inquire.

Save the Date !

PD Day

Monday, Jan. 4th: Staff will be observing a professional development day. No classes.

Scenario 1:

It is our hope that we will return to scenario 1: In-person classes on Mon, Jan. 11th. (Will update if this changes).
